Mr. J. H. Pearce said that those who came to help Mr. Parkes lately did so with the best intentions, and would be no losers by what they did. It was pity that the electors should now be told that they were not to elect Mr. Parkes, but a fit and proper person to represent them, that this was a fitting time to propose him as representative. It was but a short time before Mr. Parkes left the Legislature, and the representation of a Constituency to whom he had been elected, and who had elected him, took a vote for another representative. It was his duty for the Borough, they would be doing him injury, for he would not sit. Mr. J. H. Pearce had very good reason to know that it was Mr. P.

the Crown lands. They form not counties, principalities, nor the length and breadth of an ordinary kingdom, but vast and boundless regions. The proprietorship of this land must not be alienated for money for ages to come. Whatever dangers pertain to this property, it must be administered by the State—this land must be rented. THE BAZAR REVENUE.—Messrs. Angell and Lee, of Newmarket, rendered a letter on Tuesday from Sir John Lubbock, New Zealand, dated the 4th of August, of which the following is an extract:—"Facing our considerable losses in the Colonies, and the fact that the Colonies have left your net in May for Christmas with regard, but has never made her appearance here. I saw the Captain of a whaler the other day, and he told me that he picked up (at least once) a letter from you, but he made the attempt, but was obliged to burn it."

The prisoner and his associate were then handed over to the New South Wales police by Mr. Burton. This gentleman stated that he had attended Goulburn Circuit Court at a previous session, to give evidence in this case, but on arrival he was informed that at the prisoner and his associate had escaped from court custody. The former having been since released, Mr. Burton had now a second time travelled many hundred miles to give his testimony.

INDIA AND ITS CRUELITIES.

To the Editor of the Sydney Morning Herald:

SIR.—When the heart-harrowing cruelties which were perpetrated in India, upon our fellow-countrymen, their wives, and children, are known generally, I feel convinced that the public feeling will be aroused, and so indignant an expression given to its feelings, that much wonder will be exhibited that great sympathy should be felt in a land where "Redeem'd, you even in the civilised world," as Wordsworth says, "are all standing." It is my hope that what is but a duty in requesting you to give publication to the following inquiry, may bring

Since the outbreak by the Soviets, the most sad and barbarous conduct has marked their career: attempt to detail the direful events, would be to wound humanity itself—from the greater portion of the heinous crimes committed upon those of our nation horrible in many instances to commit even to die or even to think of I will divert this note.

But when we hear of a husband being tied to a bed and made to be a witness to the brutal dishonor of his wife, by repeated ravishment by these brutal savages, the mind is ripped entirely from the body, and the wife's fate is a fearful one, for her husband is so vile that he betrays her to her head.

lifeless bodies of her children also, tied round the necks of the wretched man!!! these are atrocities which it would be a shame if 700,000 Australian colonists, blessed with every protection, and experiencing every comfort which can be wished for, should quietly on at and not raise a hand in help of the sufferers: and I cannot think with the poet, dense before me of the Patriotic and Nightingale, that my brother colonists will permit a stigma or disgraceful indifference to the protection of our

and a railway station. It is desirable (as it is intended to be) to complete the station and erect a bridge to Globe Island, that the soap and candle manufacturers, the kilns, tanneries, the dyeing operations, the curing hides, and any other offensive occupations, should be removed to that locality; and the Government may possibly offer water frontages all round the island, more nominal rent, with long leases, on certain-bing conditions.

The bringing of shells and limonite by water, the shipment of tallow, hides, horns, bones, etc., by water, the placing on sluice and in very alligable places, the above. Your obedient servant,

Our advices from Tasmania are to the effect that the Hubert Town Advertiser of the 11th ult. says:—

We have to report a slight advance in wheat, the strong demand for bread, and a decrease, owing to the paucity of the supply, in the exportation of flour. The market for barley there has been no alteration. The supply of timber has been very limited for some days past, and unless there be

THE TREFOILISM INDUSTRY.—A correspondent of the London Mercury, thinking that it might be profitable to the colony, and particularly the Taranaki district, has sent the following remarks upon the cultivation of the trefoil, a perennial, the Trefoil Induratum, to that journal. He says, "The trefoil, it appears to me, has arrived here just in time to enable many of the farmers to grow a crop of it partly make up for the loss they have sustained by the destruction of their lucerne crops through the war.
